Old Business

4th of July and the Car Show was discussed as to who was going to work where and when. Everyone believed that they had everything taken care of. Linda and Kathy would take care of the Parade along with Trudy. Brian and Pam were taking care of the Car Show and Vendor area along with the volunteers Pam has gotten together. Bob said he would come and help during the early morning as he was in the parade and was then going to play with the community band in the park. There was discussion about the work order and what items were needed.

New Business

Grill Rental – Jennifer Griffin came to ask if the Wellington Filling Station could use the grills for the pancake breakfast during the 4th of July. It was unanimously approved that she pays the $75 deposit and $25 for the usage of the grills.

Movies in the Park – Jennifer Griffin came with some movie options for the movie in the park nights. As requested by CAC she was able to obtain Zootopia for the July 22nd date and it was decided that the August 19th movie would be Inside Out. These movies were unanimously approved.

Other

Leslie Macdonald came up and thanked Bob for all of his help during the Clean Up Day. They were very happy that they could put on this event with the help of Bob.

Brian wanted to remind everyone that the first concert in the park is coming up on Thursday June 23rd and they will also be having a Beer Garden.

Adjournment

Meeting was adjourned at 7:20PM by Brian Graves. The next general meeting will be at 6:00PM on July 18, 2016, in Leeper Center Board Room.
