

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES COMMISSION VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The CAC is seeking volunteers to help with their many great activities. Without volunteers, events like the Easter Egg hunt this April, the Christmas parade in December and of course our famous 4th of July celebration would not be possible. With our 4th of July celebration in the planning stages, now is the time for volunteers to speak up. Can you help?

CHILDREN AT PLAY

Congratulations to the Way to go!

National Kids to Parks Day is Saturday, May 20th, and the Parks Advisory Board has planned two ways for you to enjoy our parks! Please stop by Centennial Park from 12pm to 2pm to meet your Parks Advisory Board! There will be sidewalk chalk, food vendors and more. Then head over to Library Park to meet your Wellington Recreation Department! They will be playing kickball games for all ages from 2pm to 3:30pm. We hope to see you there!

MAY 20TH ANNUAL NEIGHBORHOOD PRIDE DAY

9:30 am – 10:30 am

A chance to get out and enjoy the spring air and give back. A job available for all ages and sizes! Wellington residents can dispose of unwanted debris by dropping items off at the dumpster located at Ridley's Market during the annual citywide spring cleanup event. Citizens are reminded that certain restrictions apply to the event. Items that cannot be accepted include anything exceeding one cubic yard, electronics, large appliances or furniture. Contact the Wellington CAC for additional information or for volunteer details. HOAs and surrounding areas encouraged to participate.
